Competition Introduction

Asian Elite Dance Competition

Asian Elite Dance Competition, established in 2012, aims to promote the international vision of ballet arts education and the nurturing of young talents. AEDC aspires to build an artistic exchange platform for all the next generation artists from all over the world. Moreover, the competition is also dedicated to providing scholarship and interview opportunities from world renowned professional schools and companies, in order to broaden the students' international horizon and deepen their understanding and exploration.

2025-2026 Asian Elite Dance Competition

After the different regional competitions during 2024-2025, the Annual Season Final Competition was completed with tremendous success in Shanghai, China in July 2025. Many Mainland China and overseas Ballet authorities have been invited to be AEDC Final's honorable adjudicators. AEDC Final also presents scholarships from world-renowned ballet schools and companies, such as American Ballet Theatre Studio Company, Elmhurst Ballet School in Association with Birmingham Royal Ballet Summer School, Queensland National Ballet School Summer Intensive, Seoul Universal Ballet Company Summer Intensive, USA Florida Next Generation Ballet Summer Intensive, Indonesia Marlupi Dance Academy Short-term Intensive, Singapore Yan Ballet Academy Short-term Intensive, Berlin State Ballet School Intensive and so on.

AEDC, entering its 12th anniversary, has been enforcing its initial endeavor to invite international renowned adjudicators and academies to judge, strengthen the bonding among ballet contestants, professional schools and companies, provide valuable opportunities for potential contestants to study abroad and practice in companies, and most important of all, to provide an exchange platform for contestants to learn and realize their learning on stage.

Qualification to enter 2026 Season Final

- Participants in the AEDC 2025-2026 Regional Competition, the score must be 80 or above.
- Throughout the 2025-2026 Season competition, participants who are invited to the Season Final, are allowed to register the Season Final according to the group which they were in the regional competition.

What is Green Card and Privilege ?

- The Green Card will be awarded as the “Season Final Competition Scholarship” by the AEDC Organizing Committee.
- Contestants in the Ballet category of the Pre-Competitive, Junior, and Senior Groups who have participated in any of the AEDC regional competitions during the current season are eligible. The top 6 winners with an average score of 85 or above will receive a Green Card invitation letter from the judging panel.
- Contestants who are competing in the category above their age will NOT be awarded the Green Card, even if they are placed in the top 6.
- If a contestant participates in two or more regional competitions during the season and competes in two different age categories due to aging up, they can choose to accept only one Green Card for the Season Final. The other Green Card will be forfeited.
- Contestants who wish to compete in two different age groups at the Season Final must compete in the Semi-Final to qualify for the Final in the second age group. The privileges of Green Card holders include a 50% discount on the total registration fee for the Season Final Competition. Green Card holders are also exempt from the Semi-Final and can directly enter the Final competition. (The Semi-Final performance will not be judged or scored.)
- The unit of ensemble with outstanding performance will also have opportunity to receive green cards. Only 50% of the entry fee will be paid.
